

THE TURF.

Running Meeting at Narragansett Park—A Grand Programme and Liberal Purse.

The management of Narragansett Park, agreeably to their promise of last season, made at the brilliant trotting match held in the autumn, have advised that there will be a running meeting there during the days of July 14, 15 and 16 next. The purses offered are very liberal, and the time most opportune, as it falls between the summer meeting of Jerome Park and the yearly meeting at Saratoga. There will be three races each day, of such variety as to please alike the owners of the high mettled steeds that will visit there and the thousands that will spontaneously gather to do the occasion honor. The brilliancy and enthusiasm incident to this meeting it is presumed will not be eclipsed by any similar gathering during the coming season.

SECOND RACE.

The first race of the opening day will be a dash of one and a quarter miles, for all ages, premium of $400. The second race will be a handicap of $600, added to a subscription of $50 each, half forfeit, but not less than $100. The third race will be a handicap of $100 out of the start, for all ages, half forfeit. The fourth race will be a handicap of $100 out of the start, for all ages, half forfeit; and all declarations must be made by 8 A.M. The weight will be 110 pounds, and the publication of results will be required to carry 120 pounds extra. The closing race of the day will be one mile heats, for all ages, premium $600.

SECOND RACE.

The first race of the opening day will be the Hopeful Stakes, for two-year-olds, a dash of one mile. Subscriptions $50 each, half forfeit, with $600 added. Any previous winners of $1,000 will be required to enter seven pounds extra; and so forth, up to the equivalent of the race. The second race will be the Rhode Island Cup, for all ages, two miles and a half. Subscriptions $50 each, play or pay, and $1,000 added if the race is run. The winners of the Saratoga and West Chester publications will be entitled to carry seven pounds extra. To close June 1.

This day's race will close with a race for all ages, two mile heats, premium of $1,000. The winner of the two mile race will repeat at Jerome Park during the season will be required to carry ten pounds extra.

THIRD RACE.

The last day of the meeting will open with the consolation purse of $400, a two mile dash. A horses race will be a handicap of $100 out of the start, for all ages.

The second race will be a premium of $400, for three year olds, a dash of one mile, with $600 added; that is, the winner of either the Belmont Stakes, Derby, or two miles sweepstakes at Jerome Park will receive a double premium of $1,000. The racing will wind up with the premium of $1,000, for all ages, three mile heats. The winners of the Grand National Stakes will be entitled to carry seven pounds extra.

To close June 1.

An analysis of the above programme will show that the most liberal inducements are offered to turnmen to send their best racers to Narragansett Park. The meeting will certainly be productive of sport enough, and that of the best quality.
